Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Well, Autumn is upon us! The weather is becoming much cooler and the nights are really drawing in. The leaves are changing colour and nature, God's creation, is preparing for winter. Do you have a favourite season? I'm fortunate to live in the vicarage at St John's where I have an amazing view over the valley and to the hills beyond. At this time of year in the evening the sun falls on to the moors opposite the vicarage and when it's a clear day looks absolutely beautiful, a golden light.

The Church is in what is called Creationtide, when we give thanks for what God has given us in the natural world. I'm sure we all appreciate and give thanks for the beauty we see around us; the beauty of trees, flowers, birds, animals and the landscape. God created a wonderfully diverse and abundant world, a world full of life and variety. Sadly, we know that humankind has and continues to destroy and despoil the earth and that the habitats of plants and animals are disappearing.

The Church takes care for creation very seriously and encourages us to do the same. We want future generations to be able to enjoy what we now enjoy and we pray that there'll be a greater number of animals, birds and insects than there is now.

When you look out to the hills or into a garden or see an amazing view, do you give thanks?

Genesis 1.31 says God saw all that he had made, and it was very good.

Let's pray what God has made remains 'good'

Yours in Christ,

Revd Denise

Parish Share

God Loves a Cheerful Giver (2 Corinthians 9.7)

In last month's magazine, I wrote about the meetings we have had with representatives from the diocese and how grateful we are to have received reductions in our parish shares. I'm sure most of you know why we are asked to pay the share, but I thought it would be helpful to explain what it's for.

There is a biblical principle behind parish share which has very ancient roots. In fact, it goes back all the way to the very first Church. In Acts and in St Paul's letters we read of how churches would collect money in order to support each other. There were distributions of help to the poorest members of churches locally, and money was also collected in order to offer support to churches in other towns and regions. St Paul is particularly keen to collect money for the churches in Jerusalem while on his missionary journeys.

The Church of England continues this tradition of mutual support through parish share and other similar schemes. When we make our regular financial offering to the church we are participating in this very ancient and venerable tradition. We should be pleased and proud to be supporting not only our own church but churches elsewhere in the diocese as well as support staff in St John's House. Helping our sisters and brothers, as well as accepting help ourselves is an important part of our lives as Christians.

We give joyfully! Not grudgingly!

Revd Denise

He is Always There

It is funny that when we're in trouble
We immediately kneel down and pray,
And expect that the good Lord in heaven
Will all of our fears allay.

It's amazing that when we're in crisis
We turn to the Lord straight away,
But we barely spare Him a moment
When everything's going our way.

We seem to seek God when it suits us
And we fail to keep in touch each day,
Yet regardless how badly we treat Him
His love means He's not far away.

So perhaps we should stop for a moment
And give thanks to the Lord in a prayer,
For no matter how neglectful of Him we may be
For us, He will always be there.

Prayer for October 2024

Lord,

As we move into autumn and the month of October, the normal seasonal changes are all around us, the beautiful colours, the falling leaves, the cooler days. And that is reassuring. But, so much else in our world is changing so rapidly, often in ways we don't understand. And that can be worrying.

Thank you that You never change. You are always the same, faithful, present and loving. And You tell us in Your Word, not to be anxious about anything, but to bring all things to You in prayer and to trust You. When we do this, You promise us Your Peace – a peace of heart that steadies us and helps us move forward.

Thank you that whatever comes, we are secure in You, when we put our trust in Jesus.

In His name, we pray. Amen.
